

Scream

3 toned scream every day is the same

3 toned scream

I hate this world
Want to feel like bird
Fly away from here
Wont even shed a tear

This world make me feel so so bad
But dont want to feel so sad
Wars, fights, love, lies and desires
With my mind I try to sway

3 toned scream

Scream is what is left
Fucking refusing to accept
Through my thoughts I do select
From disease need to protect

All that goes through my head
Want to change my thought instead
But it all goes to extreme
My head gonna burst I need to scream

Guitar solo
